

Alabama Invasive Plant Council Annual Conference

Monte Sano State Park, Huntsville

May 20, 2014

'A meeting for cutting edge information on invasive plant issues'

MEETING AGENDA
7:15-8:00 am	Check in and late registration (Sign in at beginning and end for recertification and CFE points)
8:00-8:10	Welcome Stephen Enloe, ALIPC President
8:10-8:30	Monte Sano State Park: Natural History and Invasive Plant Problems Soos Weber
8:30-9:00	Bush Honeysuckle – ID, Control and Potential Spread Chris Evans, Illinois Invasive Species Campaign Coordinator
9:00-9:30	Tree-of-Heaven and Paulownia – ID, Control and Potential Spread Pat Burch, DOW AgroSciences
9:30-9:50	Chinese Privet Control Stephen Enloe, Auburn University and ACES
9:50-10:20	Break
10:20-10:40	Aquatic Plant Management Efforts on the Coosa and Tallapoosa Rivers Josh Yerby, Alabama Power
10:40-11:00	TVA's Aquatic Plant Management Program David Brewster, Natural Resource Management, Tennessee Valley Authority
11:00-11:15	Invasive Plants on the Horizon Nancy Loewenstein, Auburn University and ACES
11:15 – 11:45	What Cooperative Weed Management Areas Can Do For You Chris Evans, Illinois Invasive Species Campaign Coordinator
11:45 – 12:00	Business Meeting
12:00-1:15	Lunch – (Provided)
1:30-4:00 (rotate through each of the five outdoor stations)	Herbicide ABC's (20 min) – Will Dixon, Larson and McGowin
	Herbicide Application Techniques (20 min) – Stephen Enloe, Auburn
	ABCs of Physical Weed Control (20 min) – Nancy Loewenstein, Auburn
	Aquatic Plant ID and control (20 min) – Graves Lovell, AL DCNR
	Invasive Plant ID and Mapping (20 min) – Soos Weber and Fred Nation
4:00-4:15	Closing Remarks and Recertification sign in

'Rescuing and Preserving our Natural Heritage'