Keynote Speakers

Keynote speakers will provide talks on three of the hot topics from this past year:

Douglas Tallamy will present two talks on replacing invasive species with natives in our landscapes; Chuck Bargeron will show us the exciting technology available to help us track and manage invasive species; and Nancy Loewenstein will explain the ins and outs of creating national guidelines for listing invasive plants.

Vendors, Social, Student Poster Session, Banquet, A Morning at the State Botanical Garden of Georgia and Field trips will round out the presentations by land managers and researchers from across the Southeast.
