

Alabama Invasive Plant Council
4th Annual Conference
May 4, 2006
“Rescuing and Preserving our Natural Heritage”

Alabama Power Water Course
2030 7th Street South, Clanton, Alabama
(take I-65 exit # 205; go north 0.4 mile on US 31)

- 8:00-8:45 Registration: View Displays – Pick up Handouts
- 8:45-9:00 Welcome
Howard Peavey, Acting President ALIPC
- 9:00-9:30 Keynote Speaker
Dr. Doug Phillips, University of Alabama,
Alabama Museum of Natural History
Discovering Alabama Documentary on Invasive Plants
- 9:30-9:45 Break - view vendor displays
- 9:45-10:45 State / Local Control Programs
Andy Prewett, Land Manager, Huntsville and North Alabama Land Trust
Keith Gauldin, Alabama DCNR, State Lands Division
Travis Taylor, Alabama Department of Agriculture & Industries
Howard Peavey, Alabama Department of Transportation

10:45- 12:00 BUSINESS MEETING – Board Nominations
Giant Reed (Arundo donax) Update
New Invasive Plant List
Eastern Coalition Effort

- 12:00-1:00 Lunch provided on-site
- 1:00-1:30 Funding Programs for Invasive Plant Control
Ben Moore, USDA – NRCS
Sarah O’Sullivan, Alabama Forestry Commission
- 1:30-2:15 Herbicides for Invasive Plant Control
Michelle Isenberg, BASF
Jimmie Cobb, Dow AgroSciences
Bill Wasser, DuPont VM
- 2:15-2:30 Break
- 2:30-3:15 Adjuvants for Improving Invasive Plant Control When Using Herbicides
Frank Yopp, Helena Chemical Company
- 3:15-4:00 Invasive Plant Species to Watch
Dr. Andrew Price, USDA – ARS, Auburn University
Joe Jernigan, Alabama DCNR, Alabama Wildlife & Freshwater Fisheries
Curtis Hansen, John D. Freeman Herbarium, Auburn University
- 4:00 – 4:30 Regional Online Mapping of Invasive Plants
Chuck Bargeron, Bugwood Group, University of Georgia
- 4:30- 4:45 Closing Remarks and Door Prizes
Howard Peavey

10 re-certification points for Commercial Applicator Permits will be awarded to Conference participants
CFE credits (4.5 hours for category 1) will be awarded to Conference participants